Northwest Money Manager Earns Ph.D.

(Portland, Oregon) –

Sharp Investments is proud to announce that Daniel Sharp, President and Chief Portfolio Manager of the firm, recently earned his Ph.D. in Finance, Economics and Statistics from Portland State University. His dissertation topic was using momentum investing strategies to invest in value stocks to enhance performance. Dr. Sharp also holds an M.B.A. in Finance from Seattle University and a B.S. degree in Electrical Engineering from Washington State University.

Dr. Sharp regularly teaches investment presentations and has taught investment courses in the MBA program at Portland State University, and Lewis and Clark College. Current presentations focus on value investing techniques and are free and open to the public. Dr. Sharp also is the author of a quarterly newsletter, Sharp Investing. For further information on the newsletter or for a Fall presentation schedule, call 888-760-9046 or visit www.sharpinvestments.com.
